

Library Meeting Room Policy

- 1) The Library has four meeting areas available for community use.
- 2) Activities sponsored by the Pere Marquette District Library shall have priority over all requests for use of the Library meeting rooms. Booking for groups outside the Library will be on a first come, first served basis, on approval of the Library Director.
- 3) Groups are responsible for maintaining order and are liable for any damage to library property. All library policies must be adhered to including, but not limited to, the Library Code of Conduct.
- 4) Those using the community room must comply with all governmental codes and regulations regarding the use of such rooms, including but not limited to seating capacity rules, keeping areas in front of exits clear, use of fire doors, etc.
- 5) To insure or promote the accessibility of library meeting rooms to a wide variety of community groups, no group or organization may use the rooms more than 2 times a week.
- 6) The library reserves the right to make available the name and phone number of the person or group making a reservation to anyone inquiring about the event.
- 7) Programs and exhibits may not disrupt the use of the Library by others.
- 8) The setup and breakdown of chairs, tables and other furniture is the responsibility of the group or individual scheduling the meeting room.
- 9) Library facilities shall be left in a clean and orderly condition. Users shall pay for repair of any damage to facilities. The Library will not be responsible for materials or equipment left in the building by user. Coffee, tea and light foods are permitted in the meeting room only.
- 10) Allowing the use of meeting rooms does not connote sponsorship of the event or the organization by the Pere Marquette District Library; nor does it connote an endorsement of any group's policies or beliefs. Neither the name nor the address of the Pere Marquette District Library may be used as the official address or headquarters of any organization. Publication of misleading notices and advertisements will be considered a violation of these rules.
- 11) Persons, organizations, groups, or businesses using the community room agree to hold the Pere Marquette District Library harmless from any injury, loss, damage, liability, costs, or expense that may arise during, or be caused by, use of the library facilities or grounds.
- 12) In the event of inclement weather, utility outage, or other emergency, the library director may cancel scheduled meetings. If cancellation becomes necessary, the library need only notify the person who made the application. In the event of such a cancellation, the library shall have no liability for any loss or expense if the applicant chooses not to reschedule.
- 13) The library board of trustees reserves final authority to approve or deny applications for use of the meeting rooms.
- 14) Religious groups may hold meetings but not worship or instructional services.
- 15) The Library Director has the authority to work out payment arrangements with organizations for room usage.
- 16) Room usage in the conference room on the main floor of the library is available free of charge on a first come first serve basis.

CHARGES and TIME OF USE

1. Commercial/Private groups. Room usage by a business or commercial entity or by a private individual for a private gather (where the general public attendance is not allowed). Commercial/Private Groups requesting to schedule use of a meeting room will be charged $25.00 per hour for use of meeting space during library hours. (Meetings starting/ending at the ½ hour will be rounded up to the next hour). If the Commercial/Private group needs access to the kitchen an additional $25.00 usage applied.
2. Community/small group meetings requesting a room for a meeting where the general public is welcome to attend during library hours. The responsible party is the main contact for any correspondence, issues, refund of any deposits required.
3. Key /Carpet Deposit/garbage – for groups requiring access to the building when the library is not open will be issued a key for the main entrance door. The responsible person for the organization must sign the key out for use after hours. There is a $75.00 (refundable) key deposit fee when signing out the key. The key must be returned the next business day after the event concludes. The key deposit will be returned when the key is returned to the library. For private events that will be serving food there is a $125.00 carpet deposit fee. This is a refundable deposit that will be returned after a carpet inspection after the event. If the carpet does not require cleaning the deposit will be returned. All garbage must be removed from site after the room is used. The library does not have a dumpster for trash pickup. If garbage is not removed a $25.00 garbage fee will be assessed.

- 4. A group may request, for an additional $50.00, fee paid at least one week in advance, the set-up and tear-down of the community meeting room chairs and tables. Cleaning of the tables, kitchen, & floors, and trash removal will still be the responsibility of the booking party.
- 5. Payment shall be made at the time of application. Checks shall be made payable to the Pere Marquette District Library.
- 6. The kitchen is for serving beverages, light refreshments, and meals which are catered, or prepared elsewhere. The kitchen is considered a separate room from other meeting rooms available at the library. If you need access to the kitchen there is an additional $25.00 usage fee for Business/Private groups and $10.00 usage fee for Community/Civic groups. The library is not responsible for providing supplies such as dish soap, trash bags, linens, serving utensils, plates, cups, silverware, or any other item needed for clean-up after use. A vacuum is available for use and is stored in the kitchen area. The kitchen must be cleaned thoroughly after use and trash must be removed. No food or beverages shall be left behind. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted on library property.
